

Copy Request

WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be 'used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research.' If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of 'fair use,' that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

Note: Because it is impossible to predict how many pages are included in any one file, you will receive a bill for copies when you receive the copies. At this time no request can be fulfilled via e-mail.

$1 per page copied with a maximum of 5 files requested at one time.
(Please do not send multiple requests. Allow us to fill one before you send another.)
