GENERAL INFORMATION AND RULES.

Call by Number.

Be brief but courteous to the operators. They have no time to converse.

Report all troubles to J. B. 5D, Crawfordsville.

Do not permit anyone but authorized representatives of this company to interfere with your telephone.

Long distance service will be charged to the subscriber from whose instrument the long distance message is sent. If you do not wish to assume the responsibility of payment for long distance messages other than your own, persons desiring such service should be directed to the central office or pay station.

Subscribers who are on party lines should not remove receivers from hook or listen in on line only when they are called as it not only greatly interferes with the service, but it weakens the batteries in your own phone.

Non-subscribers must pay toll over all trunk lines. If given service on local system free, be satisfied with this.

The use of trunk lines is limited to a three-minute conversation.

Public Pay Stations—Exchange at Mace; Linnsburg Store, Linnsburg.

WHITE ORPINGTONS

The Popular Chicken of To-day. WHY?

Because they are the BIGGEST LAYERS, especially is this so in the winter.

MATURE EARLY—Pullets often laying when five months old, and two and one-half pound broilers at eight weeks of age.

GROW LARGE—Averaging a half pound more than Plymouth Rocks, and a pound more than Wyandottes.

Have established an egg record of 257 eggs a year, and came out victorious in most all the egg contests in which they have been entered.

I have in my yards birds and stock from birds that have been winners at Indianapolis, Logansport, Lebanon and Crawfordsville. This season I am importing new blood into my stock from some of the best breeders in the country.

If you are interested, or can become interested in this great breed, look in this book and you will find my telephone number to be "23." Then "S-K-I-D-D-O" to the phone and give me your order. It will be appreciated and I am sure that I can please you, both in stock and eggs.
