Reunion

The Weir-Krout Reunion
was planned for, in 1920.

II Weir-Kront Reunion.

The second Weir-Kront reunion was held on the old Weir homestead (Rebecca Weir's Farm) seven miles south west of Crawfordsville on Sunday September 11th 1921. Owing to the heavy rain that fell in the morning many of the friends and relatives were not present.

The meeting was called to order by E. C. Hubbard who presided over the meeting. Our program also was made short by the disagreeable day but Mary Hannah Kront who did not fail to get here gave a very interesting and entertaining reminiscence talk to which all listened with interest. Earl Hall gave a short but interesting talk which was much enjoyed. Good old fashioned violin music, which every one greatly enjoyed was rendered by members of the Weir and Kront families.

After the program was completed officers were elected for the ensuing year.

held at Robert Weir's Grove.)

The Weirs & Kronts (and their friends) held their annual reunion Sept. 7, 1928; it being the one hundredth anniversary of their emigration of their forebears, to Indiana. There are very few who, like the Weir-Kront families can hold such a gathering on the very land, cleared, settled and bequeathed to succeeding generations for the period, of one hundred years. The day was ideal, and old friendships were renewed, and new ones made. At the noon hour Dr. George Lewis Mackintosh, of Wabash College returned thanks to the "Great Giver" after which a splendid cafeteria dinner was partaken of. The afternoon program was opened by prayer by Rev. James of Union Chapel Church, some songs, readings and instrumental music, followed by a very interesting talk by Dr. Mackintosh. Mr. Ed Rice of Crawfordsville gave a brief talk.
